CLERK

Matthew Hale,
Plaintiff

vs.

C.A. No. 14:-cv-00245

Federal Bureau of Prisons

AMICUS COMMENTARY TO MOTION FOR LEAVE (DOCUMENT 236) TO RESTRICT

COMES NOW Mark Quitta, a thirty-three [33] year old man and friend of the Plaintiff Matthew Hale who has read Document 236 via the Internet.

Matthew Hale is not a member—much less the leader—of a “gang!” His belief system, “Creativity” has nothing to do with “gangs.” The term “gang” is defined as [1] a group of troublemaking young people; [2] a group of criminals and, in its most benign manifestation, [3] a group of people who enjoy each other’s company. None of these definitions in any way addresses “Creativity,” which is religious in nature. Unless one is willing to consider groups such as the Roman Catholic Church, Judaism and Islam as “gangs” then one cannot view Creativity in that light. Indeed, the term “gang” has been used throughout this entire matter as a means of creating a situation that is both criminal—and non-existent. Sadly, those involved have been quite successful in delegitimizing constitutionally guaranteed actions.

With regard to the situation extant, I have had numerous letters returned to me because the BOP deemed them “gang related” owing to the fact that I mentioned Creativity. I, personally, am not in any gang, neither am I violent nor do I plot against anyone or any thing in the society. Of course, neither is (or does) Matt Hale! Furthermore, I am no man’s “follower,” but, rather, I am a supporter of Matthew Hale, a man I believe is being persecuted for his nonconformist viewpoints.

But I must ask the Court, what has happened to freedom of religion in this country? Why may we worship artificial intelligence and even Satan himself while it is considered not only “wrong,” but criminal to respect the survival of one’s own race and believe in a future for one’s own folk!? Using this criteria, great figures of history from Cesar to Lincoln would find themselves incarcerated with Matthew Hale!

Every day we endure reports of corruption at the highest levels of government and no one goes to jail. Indeed, no one is even charged! Consider this in light of a man whose only crime is that the government doesn't agree with his viewpoint! Just as the word "gang" has a definition, so too does the word "justice;" it means [1] fairness, [2] a system or application of the law; [3] validity; [4] good reason and, finally—and most important—[5] judge. It is my hope that in light of the total miscarriage of justice that applies in this matter, this Court will live up to the definition of justice by enforcing it without fear or favor.

Pursuant to 28 U. S. Code §1746 —

"I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct."

Respectfully submitted,
